

A Proud History

MTA members have been advocates for public education since 1845. Every legislative and legal victory is a victory for students, for the MTA, for public schools and colleges, and for the future.

