IMPORTANT CORONAVIRUS NOTE: As many members are already aware, the MTA is basing decisions about holding events on information from public health officials, and are taking protective measures to minimize risk of potential exposure.

Although certain events that bring together members from various districts have been canceled or postponed, the MTA is currently moving forward with some small gatherings, including the Retired Spring Brunches set to occur in May.

We will keep members informed as this situation evolves.

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIR

Jacqueline Gorrie

You may already have received notice from the MTA through other means, but I wanted to reach out to all of you regarding the Retired Spring Brunches in light of public safety advisories around the COVID-19 virus.

On March 18, just as The MTA Reporter was going to press, MTA leadership made the decision to cancel ALL of the upcoming 2020 MTA Retired Spring Brunches, which had been scheduled for March 31, April 16, May 6, May 11 and May 13.

This decision was made after extensive consideration. Given the escalating and cautious nature of the information and guidance offered by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Massachusetts public health officials and other experts, the MTA made the prudent decision to protect our members’ health by canceling the whole series of brunches for 2020.

Due to the ongoing advice to encourage social distancing by everyone, and the unknown duration of that advice from public health authorities, it is unclear whether the MTA will be able to reschedule the Retired Spring Brunch series for 2020.

If you had already registered for one of the brunches, you will be refunded the registration fee by whatever form of payment you used.

At the writing of this letter, MTA staff are working from their homes, but can be reached by phone or email.

If you have questions or need additional information regarding the cancellation of the brunches, please contact Robert Whalen, Retired Member/Student Member Organizer, at rwhalen@massteacher.org, or call him at 617.878.8206 or 617.869.2478.

Stay safe, everyone!

Recent Recipients of the “Honor Our Own” Award

2019
Louise Gaskins, Ayer-Shirley Regional Education Association
Nominated by Jacqueline Gorrie and Anne Wass, MTA Retired Members Committee
“During her long career, Louise Gaskins worked tirelessly on civil rights issues and efforts to expand the power of ethnic minority educators in public education through their unions. At the state level, her work led to the establishment of the MTA Human Relations Committee, which created an annual award in her name, and the Ethnic Minority Affairs Committee. In retirement, Gaskins has remained an MTA and NEA activist, playing key roles on countless committees and working groups. Gaskins has also been active on the national level as an NEA director and a delegate to the NEA Representative Assembly.”

2018
Dr. Charles Levenstein, professor emeritus, UMass Lowell
Nominated by UMass Lowell professor Craig Slatin
“Dr. Levenstein integrates his academic work with advocacy and activism, supporting healthy and safe work and living conditions. In 1987, Dr. Levenstein wrote a successful grant proposal to the National Institute of Environmental Health Sciences and began a New England-wide worker health and safety training consortium that has lasted for 30 years. … His advocacy for school health and safety continued with publication of his most recent book in 2014 — The Toxic Schoolhouse — a collection of articles on chemical hazards endangering students, teachers and staff in the U.S. and Canadian education systems.”

2017
Springfield Education Association Committee of Retirees
Nominated by SEA President Tim Collins
“The mission of the Tools 4 Teaching recycling store is to provide Springfield Public Schools teachers, especially new teachers, with quality educational materials for their classrooms at no cost. The Tools 4 Teaching store is a nonprofit organization that receives educational materials through many varied sources. Donations are received from local businesses and retiring teachers. This keeps quality and usable school materials out of landfills and puts them into SPS classrooms…. The T4T store and the social events that these hardworking, dedicated retirees manage promote unity among teachers and the community. This demonstrates to the public that we can all come together for the benefit of students — our future leaders.”

2016
Gladys Durant — Bristol County Educators’ Association
Co-Chair Richard Liston spoke for the Retired Members Committee
“As the Retired Members Committee contemplated the Honor Our Own award for 2016, it was a no-brainer that we needed to honor the life, career and service of Gladys Durant. She embodied everything this award was created to honor. Gladys was a dedicated educator in the Attleboro school system for over 30 years and was a very active member of her local association and of the MTA. After she retired, she continued to stay active, serving as a representative and former treasurer of the Bristol County Educators’ Association. She was also active within the MTA and was an active member of the Retired Members Committee at the time of her passing.”

2015
Susan Cogliano, Stoughton Teachers Association
Nominated by John Gunning, Stoughton Teachers Association
“Susan was a leader on the faculty. She served as team leader and then as department head at O’Donnell Middle School. Susan looked out for teachers, making sure they were properly provisioned. She guided new teachers, helping them adapt to their environment. Not one to give speeches, Susan’s leadership was seen in the way she would ‘check in’ with a colleague, offer assistance or guidance when needed, and quietly take the lead without being asked by someone.”
