

Earn ELL and Special Ed PDPs at Summer Conference

Due to changes in DESE Regulations, all educators with a Professional License are required to earn 15 PDPs in Special Education and 15 PDPs in ELL/SEI every 5-year renewal cycle. At this Summer Conference, MTA is offering five member-created two-day programs that meet one of the requirements.

Workshops worth 15 PDPs in ELL/SEI:

- Creating Success with English Learner Students
- Teaching Tolerance and Addressing Diversity in Schools
- Teaching English Language Learners Through Culturally Relevant Children's Books

Workshops worth 15 PDPs in Special Education:

- Supporting Students with Special Needs in Your Classroom
- Instructional Strategies, Repertoires, and Approaches for Students with Learning Impairments (K-5 Level)

You can also earn hours towards these requirements by attending any of the following workshops:

- Guiding ELLs to Independent Reading Accuracy and Comprehension
- STEAM smART for ELLs
- Collaborative Teaching: Designing a Successful Environment for English Learners in the General Ed Classroom
- RETELL Refresher
- Engagement Strategies to Reach and Teach All Students
- Integrating Technology and Universal Design for Learning
- Connecting Universal Design for Learning and Readers- Writers Workshop
- Intervention Strategies that Support Inclusion and Self- Determination of Children with Low-Instance Disabilities
- Teaching Active Study Strategies
- Understanding Disability Through Film
- All Are Welcome Here: Creating a Classroom Environment Where All Children Feel Empowered and Valued

To register or find a full listing of workshops, visit:

www.massteacher.org/summer